The Center for Fine Art Photography presents a photographic exhibit called Abstractions. The next exhibit of 2007 opens on March 30th and runs through April 28 in both galleries at the Center in Fort Collins, Colorado. The Artists' and public reception is planned for Friday, April 6, during the Fort Collins Gallery Walk. Visitors to the reception will have the opportunity to meet and talk with several of the artists.

The Juror for Abstractions, Gary Chassman, is the President of Verve Editions in Burlington, Vermont. Forty-eight photographers from Switzerland, Canada, Romania, Japan, Great Britain and the United States were chosen to display their work during this show. The theme for Abstractions is photographic art that depicts real forms in a simplified or reduced way, keeping only an allusion of the original natural subject

The Center for Fine Art Photography is a non-profit organization whose mission is to showcase the work of leading and emerging photographers and to educate the public about the collectable value of photographic art.

The Center for Fine Art Photography is located on the 3rd floor of the Fort Collins Museum of Contemporary Art, 201 S. College Ave., Fort Collins, CO, 80524. Phone 970.224.1010. Gallery hours are 12-5pm Tuesday through Saturday.
